Aylesbury Vale Newsletter December 2008

Hello and I hope that everyone has had a good 2008.

I can't believe that it is Christmas again, where has this year gone? We didn't get the summer we wanted but lets hope for better weather in 2009, I think if I had a Christmas wish it would be for a much more summery summer next year!

I have now been in post for six months and I am still learning lots and meeting new people. Many thanks to all those members and volunteers who have made me feel so welcome.

Brand New Website

For the computer buffs amongst us Ryder Cheshire has a brand new website.

Find it at www.rcv.org.uk It is bang up to date and the construction of the site has been overseen by one of our Trustees, David Lee, who has also had the onerous task of teaching the staff how to navigate and edit the site. Aylesbury Vale has its own page and I would welcome anyone who would maybe like to make a contribution to our pages to let me know of their ideas.

So as not to forget my predecessor Tony I have included some of his cheesy jokes

Why do reindeer wear fur coats?
Because they would look silly in plastic macs!

Welcome to new Volunteers Dee C and Barbara M, who have been paired with existing members of the project.

New Volunteering Opportunities

Are you Arty? We have an opportunity for someone to explore art with a lady in Aylesbury. She is hugely talented and would like someone to share her passion.

Mechanically Minded?

A Gentleman in Wingrave has an unfinished classic car restoration in his garage. He would like some help to get back on the road again!

Why does Father Christmas like to work in the garden?

Because he likes to hoe, hoe hoe

Outing for 2009

I am still investigating places to visit for 2009. Sadly Chelsea Flower Show was a non -starter.

Portsmouth looks as though it may have a lot to offer, with the historic dockyards, marine exhibits and the Spinnaker Tower. Please let me know if anyone has any other ideas that could be explored before a final destination is chosen.

Merry Christmas and
Happy New Year
